

A Prayer Against My Child's Fear

Lord, As I rest my eyes upon this child You are allowing me to parent, I am overwhelmed by the responsibility. I know that I am not the answer, but rather, the answer is You. You are the power that can make miracles happen.

Lord, I pray specifically for the fear that has enveloped _____ (name). I see the fear in acts of aggression toward himself/herself and others. I hear the fear in his/her cries. I feel the fear by _____'s inability to find relief by wrapping into my arms. I ask You to fill _____ with a spirit NOT of fear but of power and love and self-control (2 Tim 1:7). I ask You to defeat fear by binding the enemy and canceling his power in my child's soul.

I pray for You to nestle deep within his/her heart. That _____'s knowledge and relationship with You will grow deeper each day, paving a path to a life filled with peace and freedom from fear. I pray for You to be the stronghold in _____'s life leaving him/her not with fear, but with courage. For Lord, we know that You are my light and my salvation – whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life- of whom shall I be afraid? (Ps. 27:1).

I receive and claim every promise of peace for my child. I thank You and praise You in advance for the freedom my child will someday have by the power of Your Name. I also thank You for the path You will set before me as my child's mother. I know that You will open doors that need opening, close doors that need shutting, and fill my mind and actions with the wisdom needed for each step of the way.

In the Name of Jesus I pray. Amen
