

A PRAYER TO KNOW THE LOVE OF GOD

Dear Jesus, I believe in You and the mighty power of Your love. I sense You calling me to know You more each day. Only Your love is steady and only Your love pushes me to be better and to live wholly healed. I know my faith is growing, Lord, but I want more. More of You and more of Your Word. Point me to wise mentors or resources and place in my life those who can sharpen my faith and help me grow. Father, help me shine Your light of hope and love to all those in my life. And when I have moments, days, or seasons of insecurity, doubt, or grief, please hold me tight and remind me of Your unconditional love. Jesus, when I sin or fall short of my best, convict me so that I may repent and turn away. Then lift the cloak of shame I too often bear and exchange it for your mercy and grace. I know, Lord, You do not desire for us to carry heavy burdens. Instead, You ask us to come to You so that You can give us rest. Thank you for loving me, Father. And thank You for calling me Yours.

In Jesus' name, I pray.

Amen.
