SPEAKING TOPICS

♦ You Are Loved. Now and Forever

Your soul longs for more than acceptance. It longs to be wholly loved. And that can only be found in Jesus. Together, let's uncomplicate God's unconditional love and discover how it changes everything!

♦ Living Surrendered

What does it look like to live a life of surrender? To let go of our dreams, plans, and hopes? To trust that God has a different—and better—plan, even when sometimes things seem so dark that you can hardly see?

♦ Walking in Your True Identity

We often hear the term "identity in Christ". But what does it mean, how does it impact us, and how do we embrace what God says about us versus what the world says about us? Topics include self-talk, comparison, social media, and shame.

ABOUT ME

As a writer and speaker, Lori helps women make sense of God and His unconditional love for us. Her blog provides tools to grow in faith and in relationship with the Lord. She is a regular contributor to several online publications and books, and author of award-winning Surrendered Hearts: An Adoption Story of Love, Loss, and Learning to Trust.

Testimonial”

Lori is a gifted communicator for large or small groups. Her warmth, authenticity, and passion for Jesus and His transforming power in her life will inspire and encourage you. When she spoke to a group of writers at my retreat, her knowledge and practical how-to's simplified the seemingly impossible for participants and gave us all hands-on hope.
